

TW SEAM TAPE

SELF-ADHERING ROOF DECK SEAM TAPE

CLOSE THE SHEATHING GAPS AND HELP KEEP WATER FROM ENTERING THE HOME.

During a high wind event, shingles and underlayment can be compromised or worse. If shingles and underlayment are torn off the roof in a storm, the home is susceptible to serious water intrusion at the 1/8" sheathing gaps. TAMKO® TW Seam Tape can help prevent such an intrusion, covering the gaps to help spare homeowners from significant water damage in the attic, insulation and home below.

TW SEAM TAPE

According to the Insurance Institute for Business and Home Safety, unsealed roof deck seams are responsible for up to 60% of rain that falls into an attic. TW Seam Tape provides better assurance of water protection during and after construction.

DESCRIPTION

Used as an intermediate step between roof deck installation and underlayment application, TW Seam Tape covers exposed sheathing gaps, providing a critical, additional layer of protection against water.

- Self-adhering for ease of application
- Slip-resistant film surface for added safety of the roofing crew
- Works with all TAMKO shingles and underlayments
- Building code required in Connecticut
- 5-year Limited Warranty and Arbitration Agreement

USES

TW Seam Tape is designed for application on a variety of surfaces, including OSB, plywood and most other common roof deck materials.
